Albert Barnett Says He Was Invited Into House He Looted by Chance Street Acquaintance.

In a sensational attempt to free himself from a charge of burglary, Albert Barnett, who is accused of breaking into the house of Charles Sewell, 252 Louise street, and stealing a quantity of silverware, this morning admitted a written statement to the police that he had no articles in question, but declared that he had been admitted to the house by an intoxicated woman who had accosted him on the street and asked him to come to her home.

Mr. Barnett was called by the police yesterday and she went to her home and

Claims to Have Succeeded in Finding Remedy.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—A special dispatch

According to private advices received last night from New York and Castalia, Ohio, the wealth of John D. Rockefeller has made possible a cure for meningitis. Dr. Simon Flexner, the New York dispatch says, has discovered a serum which will cure the heretofore fatal disease. Experiments made at Castalia have demonstrated the efficiency of the serum.

Dr. Flexner is head of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research in New York. He will return from Europe in a few days and then is expected to announce his discovery through the proper medical channels.

Cures of meningitis have been effected in three cases

NOTED CASE BRINGS SMILE

Attorney Made Happy by Result of Litigation in Which His Word is Impugned.

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—Colonel Henry deH. Waite, former commandant at the State University, now a member of the law firm of Keyes, Waite & Martin, won a victory in court yesterday that brought smiles to his face. He had transferred a claim of $30 attorney's fees, alleged to be owing him from C. C. Henlon of San Francisco to C. H. Patterson, and Patterson appeared as plaintiff in the suit. The court found for the plaintiff. The case occasioned much comment when Henlon filed a cross complaint several weeks ago, Henlon alleging that his failure to pay Colonel Waite's bill was because of Waite's failure to make good a lot of alleged promises he had made to Henlon. Waite, according to Henlon had said he could collect a big bill for Henlon against the earthquake and fire relief committee in San Francisco because he (Waite) knew ex-Mayor Elihu H. Hays and other relief officials intimately. Henlon swore that Waite's influence with these officials had produced nothing and so he declined to pay Waite's charge of $30 for services rendered. Colonel Waite testified that he withdrew from Henlon's service after he discovered that the bill was padded, and that the $30 charge was made for trips undertaken by him in Henlon's interest before the discovery of the padded bill was made. The court found for Henlon, and the former University commandant expressed himself as delighted, more because of the satisfaction resulting from overturning Henlon's grave cross complaint than because of the amount of money involved in the case.

IS FINED $10 FOR BEATING UP HUNTER

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—J. S. Corey, superintendent of the yards for the Oakland and West company, was found guilty this morning of beating on the person of Jose Zabrowsky, a young Pole, whom Corey had shot and in the corral of his company. Corey testified that Zabrowsky had been shooting at him among wild steers, causing the animals to stampede. Corey chased the offender for several hours, finally catching him in Berkeley. He tried to put the man under arrest, but people in the neighborhood interfered with him because he was slapping Zabrowsky. Corey said that Zabrowsky got away, but not until he had given him a beating. J. Martin, who saw the tussle, acted as attorney for Zabrowsky. A fine of $10 was imposed on Corey.

COMES WEST TO STUDY CALIFORNIA CLIMATE

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—Dr. Hubert N. Rowell entertained today Dr. C. T. Taylor, editor of the Philadelphia World, the foremost medical publication of the country. Dr. Taylor has been at the Hotel Fairmount for several days in San Francisco. While on this side of the bay he will be entertained extensively by physicians of Berkeley and Oakland. A luncheon has been planned at the Piedmont Club tomorrow, which will be followed by an automobile trip through the country. Dr. Taylor is accompanied on the trip west by his wife. He is making a study of climatic conditions in the several parts of the United States and will remain on the coast for several weeks.

SCHOOLS OVERCROWDED.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 6.—There will be a meeting of the board of education tonight. The attendance at the schools, which opened yesterday, is heavy and some of the rooms are overcrowded. The board will make arrangements for handling the students at the meeting tonight.

THREE FORMER UNIVERSITY GIRLS TRIUMPH IN SOUTH

MISS ETHEL MEREDITH. MISS ALICE PHILLIPS.

IN SOCIETY, LITERATURE AND SCIENCE

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—Three former college girls are now achieving triumphs in the southern part of the state and friends of all are delighted at the reports that come to Berkeley of the success won by the charming "co-eds" in question. Miss Ethel Meredith of the '07 class has been winning social honors in Los Angeles during the summer. She has been a guest of Mrs. S. H. Guberson, and a large number of affairs have been given in her honor. In the same city Miss Alice M. Phillips, also a college girl, has scored heavily as a clever young woman of affairs. She acted as a secretary of the committee of arrangements in entertaining the National Educational Association when it met in Los Angeles last month, and edited a splendid book, designed for the use of visitors in the city at that time. She is now engaged in literary and business work which is calculated to keep her occupied for months to come.

FRESHMAN CLASS MAY BE RECORD BREAKER

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—From indications at the present time this year's freshman class at the university will be a record-breaker. All day yesterday the future freshmen came in a steady stream to file applications and recommendations for admission. Many applications have also been received through the mails. It is reported that more applications have come in at the present time than at this date last year. As this is the last day accorded to the filing of freshmen's applications the recorder's office is taxed to its utmost capacity.

WILL DROP STUDENTS.

A large number of the entrants will have matriculation conditions, and are endeavoring to remove these conditions by taking the entrance examinations in those studies in which they are deficient. The entrance examinations begin on next Wednesday and extend over a week. As usual, there will be a number of old students who will have to take the special examinations in order to make the required number of units to be dropped from the rolls. In December last 150 were dropped.

GRADUATE WEDS.

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—Alfred Joseph Champreux and Miss Mattie May Fisher were married in Gilroy Wednesday. Champreux is a graduate of the University of California with the class of 1904, and is now associated with the department of mathematics and astronomy at Berkeley.

TRIBUTE TO CAPT. BOSWELL

Citizen of Berkeley Writes of Life and Adventures of Noted Pioneer.

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—A tribute has been written by Judge Thomas B. Garber to the late Captain Benjamin Boswell, a former Berkeley resident, who died at Boswell Springs, Oregon, about a month ago. Judge Garber is a resident of this city and was for years an intimate friend of the old soldier and California pioneer. He knew Captain Boswell's record almost perfectly and his article dealing with the chief events in that man's life is here given in part:

"Born in Indiana September 20, 1837, Captain Boswell was one of a large family of strict Quaker parents. He was educated at Athens, O., where later he began teaching school, in which vocation he was engaged at the outbreak of the Civil War. Notwithstanding his Quaker teachings the call for volunteers found him ready to offer his services and life to his country. August 1, 1861, he became first sergeant of Company I, Fourth West Virginia United States Volunteers. Two months later he was promoted to second lieutenant, and relieved, successful promotions until, on December 29, 1864, he became major of the Second West Virginia Volunteers. On July 16, 1865, he was mustered out at Washington, D. C., after four years' almost continual active service in the field.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB TO RECEIVE MAYOR

ALAMEDA, August 6.—Thursday night the Alameda Improvement Club will give its reception to the Mayor and the members of the Council. The entire club membership will act as a reception committee. Theodore Reichart, F. I. Macaulay and E. K. Healey compose the decorating committee. There will be a literary and musical program and speeches will be made by the officials.

TEARS ONE MINUTE; LAUGHTER THE NEXT

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—The Rev. Dr. Hawkins delivered the sermon at the mission tent, corner of Shattuck avenue and Durant street, last night. He received a warm reception from his hearers. The tent was crowded to its utmost capacity. Dr. Hawkins' subject was "Get Acquainted with God." Dr. Hawkins is a very fluent talker and his sermon was full of interest and conviction. He was interrupted by laughter at the next service. Services are held in the tent every evening at 7:30 p. m.

BACK FROM YEARS' JOURNEY TO EUROPE

ALAMEDA, Aug. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and Miss Carrie and Daisy Miller of 2114 Santa Clara avenue, have returned from Shasta Retreat where they spent six weeks. The Rev. and Mrs. Willie Martin have returned from a visit at Oran View. Rev. Martin resumed his pastorate at the First Methodist Church Sunday.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the amount possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period at which death is most likely to occur is between 50 and 60. The proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged, carelessness being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific food medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. HAS EYE REMOVED.
ALAMEDA, Aug. 6.—Charles Rogers of 521 Central avenue had his right eye removed at a local sanatorium last night. Rogers was struck on the eye by a hammer in the hands of a man with whom he was working in San Francisco last week. The injury became worse as time went on and it was finally necessary to remove the eye.

WILL WRITE OF FINANCE WHILE AWAITING WEDDING

NORTHWEST IS THEME CHOSEN E. Carlton Parker Is Laboring Under 2 Engagements.

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—Love and riches are supposed to have an equal place in the thoughts of E. Carlton Parker at this time. His friends have learned that the young University graduate is not only preparing to be married but is also to write a book on the financial condition of the northwest. As heretofore announced Parker has won for his bride one of the best known graduates of the University, Miss Cornelia Stratton.

Parker is a member of the class of '04. He was rated as a brilliant student, and since his graduation has given attention both to finance and literature, excellence in both. He has assisted in University extension work, with Professor Morse Stephens, and now is connected with Halsey & Company, one of the leading financial houses of the west. He is making a study of financial conditions throughout the northwest, and will write later of the results of his investigations.

KEEN DEMAND FOR KINDERGARTENS

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—The South Berkeley kindergarten opened yesterday morning for the fall term in the People's College building on Alcatraz avenue, near Adelphi street. It is under the management of the Berkeley Mothers' Club. The kindergarten is in charge of Miss Lydia Chase, an experienced kindergarten teacher from Albany, N. Y., and Miss Patton of Berkeley, a trained assistant.

There seems to be an urgent demand for kindergartens in this section of town. Many newcomers from other cities of our country and even from Honolulu have made application only after seeking in vain for a public kindergarten. It is to them a matter of surprise that a city with the reputation that Berkeley has as an educational center should provide no free kindergartens for its children.

"Surely it is not lack of ability that prevents our citizens from providing as complete an educational system as is demanded by other cities of its size," said one of those interested in the kindergarten, this morning. "No money can be better invested than that devoted to the training, educating and guiding of the young. Berkeley has met the demand for manual training, and even for a juvenile court. How long shall we wait for public kindergartens?"

THOUGHT WAR WAS ON.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 6.—Mrs. A. Phelps of 1832 Clinton avenue telephoned the police station last evening that two Japanese were in her yard cutting down her trees. She was uncertain if war had yet commenced and kept to her home and feared to go into the yard to see the men. Detective Wamouth was sent to find what the hostile movement of the Japanese meant, and when he reported back he declared the men had been ordered to do the work by the owner of the property.

DR. BLACK SELLS HOME.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 6.—Dr. W. Black has sold his handsome residence at the corner of San Jose avenue and Grand street to J. L. Bryner, a real estate dealer of New York. There is a frontage of ninety feet on Grand street and the house is one of the prettiest in the city. The sale price has not been made public by Hammond & Hammond, the agents.

NOTED DIVINE ACCEPTS CALL

Rev. I. N. McCash of Iowa Will Take Pastorate of First Christian Church.

BERKELEY, Aug. 6.—The Reverend I. N. McCash of Des Moines, Iowa, has accepted the pastorate of the First Christian Church of this city. A telegram was received Sunday morning from the distinguished Christian minister accepting the call of the church directors, which was read to the congregation. Dr. McCash is known throughout the country as a preacher of ability and a hard worker. The new pastor is one of six brothers who are engaged in pulpits under the authority of the Christian Church. His father is also a minister, and, although quite old, is yet actively engaged in the Christian ministry.

SALOON FIGHTER.

For ten years Rev. I. N. McCash was pastor of the Christ Trinity Church of Des Moines. Some time ago, however, he was elected president of the Anti-Saloon League of the State of Iowa. His work along this line has been strenuous and his strength has been felt in more than one locality in the middle States. Leading members of the Christian Church say the congregation is especially in need of a pastor of Dr. McCash's ability at the present time. Some time ago, owing to a misunderstanding among the congregation, Rev. R. P. Shepherd was forced to resign from the pastorate. The membership of the church fell off because of this internal strife. For some time past Prof. Sherman Kirk has been acting pastor.

Prof. Kirk has been for ten years a teacher at the Drake University in Des Moines. At the recent convention of the Christian Church at Santa Cruz Prof. Kirk was voted a professorship in the Berkeley Bible Seminary of the Christian Church. He is now debating whether he will accept this post.

UNANIMOUS CALL.

Dr. McCash took charge of a little church in Des Moines when he first went to that city and in a few years he had built up the congregation until it numbered 2200. There was no hesitation on the part of the members of the local congregation in extending to Dr. McCash the call to the local pastorate. Letters and telegrams were exchanged many times, however, before he finally accepted the position. The Rev. Mr. McCash will preach his first sermon on September 8. The call was extended to Dr. McCash about a month ago, but the answer was not received until Sunday morning.

Government by Grand Jury.

It is stated, apparently by authority, that the San Francisco grand jury will not be discharged till after the primary election. This statement is accompanied by a broad intimation that it may be required to take up election matters.

If the life of the grand jury is to be prolonged till after the primary election is held, in order that it may deal with irregularities that may or may not occur, why should it not continue in existence till after the general election? And why should it not continue till after the primary in 1908, after the general election of that year, and also till the next State and county elections come off? If political expediency calls for its temporary continuance, why should the continuance stop at a month or a year or two years?

True the Constitution and the statutes direct that a grand jury shall be drawn each year, and that the grand jury drawn for one year shall hold only till the jurors from which the succeeding panel is to be drawn are selected and returned, in the manner prescribed by law, but it is contended that public necessity knows no law, and that the present grand jury can be continued indefinitely, or as long as the presiding judge who ordered it drawn sees fit not to discharge it. If there is no limitation on the life of a grand jury, and it is desired to do politics with this one, why not keep it going forever? If political expediency is to be the decisive factor, who is to render the decision and when and where is the matter to end?

This is a question that insistently demands an answer. It cannot be answered by saying the grand jury is doing good work, or that it is inspired by good motives. Nor is it answered by saying political expediency requires it to hold for a time longer.

Is the present grand jury proceeding under authority of law, and can its life be extended to further political expediency or any other end, good or bad, that may be sought? All the indictments found by this body have been attacked on the ground that the jury has no legal existence and has no jurisdiction. The courts will have to pass upon this question, and to save the expense of many trials, the result of which may be invalidated, a decision should be rendered in advance of other trials. However, the indictments already found are numerous and cover pretty near all the alleged cases of corruption under investigation. Their legality is not to be determined by newspapers or private detectives. Whether well or ill founded the validity of the indictments depends upon the validity of the grand jury. If that body has been continued in office after it had ceased to be a legal grand jury, the blame for the fruitlessness of its labors will have to rest upon those who attempted to perpetuate it beyond the period of its legal existence.

It is to be presumed, of course, that the hoodling Supervisors are not to be indicted. The immunity contracts forbid that. It is also understood that the indictments against Abe Ruef are merely matters of form, Ruef having made terms with the prosecution, and been given pledges that he considers a guarantee that he will never darken the doors of San Quentin.

Witnesses, jurors and attorneys who have displeased Messrs. Spreckels, Heney and Burns have been threatened with indictment. Every time any one offends the leaders in the graft crusade he is threatened with the wrath of the grand jury. Now the public is informed—quite significantly—that the grand jury is to remain on tap till after the primary election is held. Somebody may require its services, or somebody must be held in terror of its activities.

The point to be observed that the threats to prosecute are always by indictment by this grand jury, and not by indictments found by a succeeding grand jury, or by information in accordance with regular criminal procedure in this State. The assumption always is that the grand jury will indict anybody Messrs. Spreckels, Heney, Langdon and Burns desire indicted. Thus the grand jury has become a part of the office of District Attorney and its presentations have taken the place of the informations prescribed by the Constitution and the Code of Criminal Procedure of California.

Why is it necessary to continue this grand jury long beyond the time allotted to it by law? Why was it necessary in the first instance? Can no other grand jury be empanelled? If grand juries fail in their duty there can be prosecution by information. It is alleged that this particular jury has unfinished business on hand. Prior to the adoption of the New Constitution, each grand jury expired with the term of court for which it was drawn. If there was unfinished business it was taken up by a succeeding grand jury. No grand jury can have any greater measure of authority than every other grand jury that may hereafter be drawn. If there can be an assumption of powers not delegated by law from good motives there can be an equal assumption of undelegated powers from improper motives. The limitations of power constituted by law cannot be measured by motive nor expanded and contracted to fit particular exigencies. If the tenure of a grand jury can be extended a day, a week or a month longer than the period prescribed by law it may be extended indefinitely. In a county having but one Superior Judge, for instance, a single jury (provided it met the wishes of the Court and the District Attorney) could be kept in office during the whole term of six years. Imagine what a tremendous arbitrary power for evil could be thus exercised.

Suppose, for the sake of argument, that a man like Jim Gallagher were Presiding Judge of the San Francisco Superior Court, and a man like Abe Ruef District Attorney, what opportunities for criminal greed and oppression would be afforded with a perpetual grand jury to assist! This is not a far-fetched supposition, for Gallagher could have been Superior Judge and Ruef District Attorney if Ruef and Schmitz had deemed it expedient. A complaisant County Clerk would allow a packed grand jury to be drawn with every outward appearance of regularity. Now if this grand jury could be kept in office indefinitely, will any one undertake to say what could, not be done, what infamous wrongs might not be perpetrated?

Carry the parallel further, and have a venal ruffian like Dinan, instead of William J. Burns, working up the cases and furnishing the evidence, with a pack of self-confessed scoundrels like the hoodling Supervisors ready to swear anybody into prison. It should never be forgotten that the power for evil is as great as the power for good, and that it is more likely to be used to its utmost extent by bad men than by good men. In dealing with the exercise of illegal power by the San Francisco Superior Court, the Supreme Court said, in the Bruner case, 92 Cal.:

"It is apparent that the claim of power under the said section 226 to do the thing complained of in the case at bar should be closely scrutinized and denied unless the power be found to be clearly given; for if it exist it is a most arbitrary and dangerous power—one that can easily be used to unjustly destroy character, liberty or life. And in determining whether or not there be such legal power we must discard all consideration of the worthiness or unworthiness of the purpose sought to be attained in any particular case. There must be attributed to the learned judge of the court below good motives and purposes; but if he have the power claimed, then such power must be conceded to every other person who may at any time occupy a similar judicial position. Under such power a court could easily procure the indictment and perhaps the conviction of any person whom it deemed to be an offender by simply appointing a person favorable to its designs to select jurors with a similar bias. In times of great public excitement, political or otherwise, a citizen who has incurred censure in certain quarters would have scarcely a remnant left of that protection which is afforded by a fair trial before an impartial jury; and to say that such unlimited power can be safely lodged with all the men who may happen to be judges would be to ignore human history and the principles of human nature."

Every person at all familiar with the San Francisco situation can appreciate the force and significance of this comment from the highest court of the State. Its relevancy is derived from the fact that the body now exercising the power and authority of a grand jury in San Francisco should have been discharged last January and a new jury drawn, had the law been followed. The mandate of the law is plain that a new grand jury shall be drawn each year from a list of grand jurors selected and returned in the month of January, which jury shall hold for one year or until the new list of jurors be provided. A new list was provided last January, but it has never been utilized because the presiding judge has attempted to prolong the life of the present grand jury by refusing to perform the duty the law exacts of him. This fact gives pith and point to the following from the decision quoted from previously:

"It must be remembered that unauthorized power may be used for bad as well as for good purposes. A spectator might, for the moment, look in safety and with complaisance upon the barbaric tumult of a mob, if he happened to be in sympathy with its present design; but let the fury of another mob be directed against him, or those whom he knows or believes to be innocent, and he will appreciate at once the value of legal protection. So also he may look lightly upon the spectacle of a jury packed for the purpose of prosecuting one whom he believes to be guilty; but if such a course were pursued toward him or his friend he would have clear views of personal security and the sacredness of a jury trial. Under the best system that human wisdom can devise, an innocent man will, at long intervals, be punished, and a guilty one go free; but that a government of law is better than a government of unlimited personal power is a principle that has been fought out in English and American history, and established as a monument of liberty."

A precedent is being set in San Francisco that may react with terrible force and disastrous consequences. It is well to inquire if criminals cannot be punished and a community purged of crime without resorting to expedients under color of law which destroy every legal right guaranteed the citizen and which establish precedents and a base of authority for the foulest of conspiracies against the liberty and property of the most blameless. Moreover, a government of law is a government of law—of defined and limited powers—not of arbitrary expedients based upon assumed or presumed public necessity. If judicial power cannot be exercised in accordance with the law, then it is time to call in the mob and resort to the swift and brutal methods of Judge Lynch. Better discard the law than prostitute it, even to serve good ends or to do that which seems for the moment desirable and necessary.

A pretty compliment was paid to Town Marshal Vollmer of Berkeley yesterday when he was presented by Colonel A. Andrews of San Francisco, through President Terrier of the Board of Trustees, with a gold watch as a mark of appreciation of his heroism in saving two young women from drowning recently in Russian river. It was a just recognition besides of a noble deed bravely done.

The activity of United States District Judge Landis is becoming more distasteful daily to the trusts, and he promises to become the best trusted hated jurist in the country. He has followed the recent imposition of an approximately $30,000,000 fine on the Standard Oil Company by permanently restraining the church and school furniture trust of Chicago from entering into any further agreements or conspiracies in restraint of trade.

The circulation abroad of 2,485,000 copies of illustrated pamphlets, magazines and books descriptive of California and its resources during the fiscal year ending June 30 was one of the contributions of the Southern Pacific Company toward the promotion of the State's interests. Naturally the company relies upon getting its money back with interest through increased colonist and tourist traffic, and it will be justly entitled to it.

Raids of Turkish troops on the northwestern frontier of Persia promises to produce the extraordinary result of co-operation on the part of Russia and Great Britain to preserve the integrity of the Persian empire. It would be one of the most remarkable incidents in modern history for these two powers to abandon their traditional animosity for the common purpose of curbing the unspeakable Turk whose interests Great Britain has consistently defended for over half a century against Russia's aggressions.

Land grabbers are having hard times in their tussle with the United States in the courts. The Oregon convictions for public land thefts are being followed by others in Wyoming, for the unlawful acquisition of coal lands in the public domain there, and the clouds are gathering around the heads of some veteran public land grabbers in this State who have at last been haled before the Federal Courts to render an accounting of the manner in which they have squandered their possessions. "The worst of the transgression is land."

Pointed Paragraphs

Dr. Senator John C. Spooner of Wisconsin, whose term expired on March 4, declares that he is glad to get out of politics. "It is curious but not true," he remarked a few days ago, "that I never really cared for the game—in fact, rather disliked it. Now I am going to practice law because I like it. Without law we would have no society; without society we would have no government. Law is a great science."

When the great project for the consolidation of the suburbs of the city into a "Greater Berlin" has been carried out, the Prussian and German capital will be the second largest city in Europe and the third largest in the world. It will then have more than 3,000,000 inhabitants, and will outrank Paris by about one-quarter million. At present it has about 2 1/4 million inhabitants, 1/4 million less than the French capital, and 1/2 the third city of Europe and the fourth in the world.

Strange as it may seem correct pronunciation of the President's name is rarely heard. Only a few days ago Mr. Roosevelt laboriously explained to a visitor the orthography of his patronymic. He spelled it out thus: "R-o-s-e-v-e-l-t." "It is more nearly Ro-sa-v-e-lt than it is Ro-sa-velt," the President explained, patiently, "but if I should syllable it that way for you and you should follow my spelling in an effort to convey to others the historically correct pronunciation of my name somebody would be sure to give the broad sound to the 'a' and make it 'Rosa-velt,' so that it is safer to use the diphthong 'e' in order to avoid worse confusion. So, remember that in my name the double 'o' is just 'o' the 's' is 'z' and the 'e' following the 's' is short 'a'."

Miss Camilla Mauben has returned to her home in Piedmont after a visit to San Jose and will soon leave for Santa Cruz.

HOME WEDDING.

The marriage is announced of Miss Eva Ruth Noble of this city and John Francis Child of Honolulu. The ceremony took place Sunday, August 4, at the home of the bride on Thirty-fifth street. The Rev. Clifton Macdon officiated.

REST CURE FOR CLOTHES

A clever girl with more taste than money always puts away her ribbons and laces to rest. This is not so much to freshen them, though they are improved by it, as to have something which is apparently new to her friends when she wears them after their "rest cure."

Nothing induces shabbiness in coats and gowns more than the lines and wrinkles which show that they have been worn and worn, says the Pittsburg Leader. Walking creases and sitting creases make a garment old before it has done its duty.

Men know this better than women, and this is why a man is well dressed with a small wardrobe, because every week or so he makes a change of suits, sends the suit he has been wearing to the tailor and never by any chance allows a wrinkle to become fixed in his garments.

Not all of a woman's frocks can go to the tailor, but she can manage to change her clothes often enough to give them an entire rest.

Here is a plan that has been tried with success for cleaning and pressing skirts: Brush them first, then whisk off with a clean brush dampened in ammonia and warm water. Any stain can be removed if rubbed out at once with a mixture of equal parts of ammonia, alcohol and water. After the skirts are thoroughly cleaned, brushed and dried, lay it on the pressing table or board, pin each pleat down in its proper fold, cover the skirt with a piece of dark woolen goods, which has been previously dampened, and then press.

After it is pressed hang it up carefully and leave the pleats pinned down until used.

To remove dust from silk skirts do not use a brush, but wipe them with a piece of velveteen, which will not wear the silk and will remove the dust much better than to brush.

Silk or ruffled skirts should be fitted with tapes sewed on the lower ruffles, by which they can be hung upside down. This prevents the skirt from sagging and the ruffle from drooping.

Gowns of delicate material should be put away in long boxes or bureau drawers, each skirt being folded in the pleats into which it should fall when worn. The bodices should be stuffed with tissue paper, the sleeves and trimmings filled out with tissue paper also.

Wash frocks should always be put away in trunks, boxes or drawers, whether they have been worn or not, in hanging they grow stringy, are more easily affected by dampness and lose freshness.

Suits and frocks should be carefully gone over and mended and repaired before they are put away for rest.

DATE PUDDING.

One cup of dates and one of English walnuts chopped together; add one cup of sugar in which a teaspoonful of baking powder has been stirred; stir in two well beaten eggs and bake twenty minutes. Serve warm or cold with whipped cream.

SALOONS HAVE ROBBED US WHITE WOMEN OF OUR CLOTHES AND HAVE HUNG US UPON THE WALLS

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 6.—Suggestive pictures upon the walls of Southern saloons are the main causes of the fearful assaults made on Southern women by negroes, according to Mrs. Nannie Curtis of Texas. Mrs. Curtis, who is national organizer of the W. C. T. U., said yesterday in a public address at the Upworth Assembly, "The saloons have robbed us of our loved ones, of our homes, and they have robbed us of our clothes and have hung us upon the walls of saloons to inflame the passions of drunken black brutes."

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF THE SUMMER GIRL

No. 7—Look well to thy conduct, lest the snapshot man come upon thee unaware.

Little Mrs. Flighty neglects her children while she spoons on the gallery with young Golightly. reality Mrs. Flighty may have meant no harm; but none the less Mrs. Flighty has hurt herself in the popular estimation. A little figuring, daughter, will show you that this kind of a game is not worth the candle.—From the Summer Girl's Commandments.

6 OF 10 SUMMER GIRL COMMANDMENTS

No. 1.—When thou travellest be not as the provincials are, for they are like unto the swine who hog it all, and their name is an abomination and a hiss in all men's mouths.

No. 2.—Bear in mind that thou art not the only pebble on the beach, and that the summer hotel is not run for thy exclusive behoof and benefit. So shall the sick and the halt and the sleepless arise and bless thy name.

No. 3.—Consider thy raiment, yet put not all thy trust in clothes, for, lo, the race is not always to the fashion plate, nor the victory to the milliner's model.

No. 4.—Boast not of the splendor of thy home, nor of the number of thy man servants and thy maid servants, nor of the millionaires who wished to marry thee, for behold thy price tag is written upon thy forehead so that the woman who runs may read, and she will know thee for what thou art.

No. 5.—Take heed to thyself, and consider well what thou mayest do and what thou shouldst refrain from doing. Be not of those foolish, fat virgins who sit in hammocks, nor of the bony ones who go in swimming.

No. 6.—Consider well thy conversation, for a woman standeth or falleth by her tongue.

years, perk up and get real frisky. Young married women who are good and dutiful wives at home enter into the most outrageous flirtations, while girls appear to look their maidenly reserve up with their furs and leave them behind them and permit familiarities from men that they would resent to the death in the winter.

Doubleless the women who do these things have some code of ethics by which they justify their lapses to themselves, but unhappily other people do not take the same view of the situation. If you will keep your ear to the ground, or even hanging out of the window, you will have no difficulty in hearing just what the assembled company in a summer hotel think of the way in which little Mrs. Flighty neglects her children while she spoons on the gallery with young Golightly. There will also be added thereabout a few caustic remarks about fast married women, and there is sure to be some philanthropic lady who will feel it her sacred duty to tell Mr. Flighty, when he comes up for the week's end, about his wife's goings on.

In reality, Mrs. Flighty may have meant no harm and done no harm. She may have been simply sitting up until midnight discussing the railroad rate bill with Mr. Golightly, or even listening to his rhapsodies about the girl whose picture is in the back of his watch and to whom he is to be married in the fall, but none the less Mrs. Flighty has queered herself in the popular estimation and the reputation of being a married woman, who is seeking the admiration of other men than her husband, and of only needing a temptation of being real gay, will follow her back home.

A little figuring, daughter, will show you that this kind of a game is not worth the candle. The same rule applies equally to any kind of a silly flirtation. Summer is the time of irresponsible love-making, when no girl who has three grains of sense takes the summer speeches that a man makes to her seriously, but you want to play the game with a light hand, daughter, and most of the cards you play are not worth while—it is enough NOT worth while—to get yourself into about for the sake of having some one whisper to you beside the married sea that he never loved before, and been seeking you through all the winter when he doesn't mean a word of it, you know that he doesn't, and that nothing on earth but a summer sea.

If you go camping, daughter, don't get to take along your feminine day. Most girls leave it at home. Go, but nature if you will, but don't go too back. There is no more reason for a man holding your hand in the woods than there is for his holding it as you go along Broadway. There's no occasion for hopping over on the shoulder of a man who is nothing to you because you have to be sitting next to him on a log, but a wood fire. If you haven't the strength to sit alone, it's a sanitarium and a camping outfit for you. Families may at the moment seem to be torn by the time, the place and the situation, even the example of those about you, before you indulge in them I implore to reflect how you would like to be related to their friends next winter, relating those little episodes of a summer vacation.

Above all, daughter, beware of snapshot artist. It may seem to you when everybody's spirits are keyed high C on some picnic occasion, to merry jest to be photographed in a man's hat and coat and with his arm around you, or in some position that really innocuous, but that in the hard light of a picture looks compromising enough.

Think how you will enjoy having pictures stuck up on a man's wall the inspection and gibe of other married women. Some of them may have fallen into the hands of your husband and make trouble for you, for men have a small sense of humor where the women love, and about whose honor are sensitive, are concerned.

It is not enough, daughter, to be in summer. You must so conduct yourself that you will make good in the opinion of those about you.

SAYS SOUL KISS IS MOST DELIRIOUS OF EMOTIONS

Tingling Thrills, Tremulous Ecstasy and Deliriums of Enchanted Bliss Are Few of Its Effects.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The soul kiss, the million-mile long kiss, the glorified, beautified, rapturous evolution of osculation, is threatening one of our noblest institutions—the old-established yum-yum chaste salute affair. Vesta La Viesta, planetary explorer and cosmologist is its prophetess. In her pretty studio in the Broadway Arcade she is giving lessons in how to administer and receive it. Tingling thrills, tremulous ecstasy and deliriums of enchanted bliss are a few of its effects, she says. And the best part of the soul kiss is that it may be sent across endless spaces, or shot from lip to lip in a small room beneath the watchful eyes of parents or strangers. It is safe and sane and yet wild and soul-rendering. It is the acme of joy.

Society women, artists, literateurs and professional folk have listened to La Viesta lecture here and in Brooklyn, she says, and are taking lesson in the delectable soul kiss in her arcade studio.

REACHING SOUL KISS.

"Unhappy marriage, money suffering and all our mistakes lie in the lack of development of the solar plexus," La Viesta explained today, after announcing that she had come from a two years' retirement with the new osculatory mode, "When that is developed we come to the soul kiss—the most delicious of emotions. It is the poet's beverage."

"I have met my affinity, but not on this earth. You know Neptune is the paradise of the philosophers. There I met my soul mate. La Viesta gets her title of cosmologist through a round trip she once made of the planet. It was by her thought me to come here."

"I have never seen him since, but I love him. It is like a million life long kiss while falling in the web of sunset. Each breath made a thrill like thy currents, glowing through the whole body. My greatest crime to earth, my sin to the god of the universe, but I will not let that and I say, thank the kiss to others. He gave me, too, the power to express myself in poetry."

THE POEM.

This is the poem, written with the power of La Viesta's Neptune fancies, which she likes above all the rest.

I sat, anticipating yet-awed, with that instinct alert, Dreading yet longing for I knew not what;

While he, with the swift stillness that bespeaks the all-stirred within, Gilded beside me and with tender arms about me, like will-o'-the-wisp he drew me closely to his loving breast.

And he kissed me and kissed me in that gentle way, All the magic thrills enthralled me, Opened wide the closed-up avenues of my soul.

And in a delirium of ecstatic joy My being heaved and heaved like the billows of an ocean roused from its rest.

As if the elements had loosened their festive whirled in a game of life and death.

Oh, love! Oh, joy! Oh, mortal bliss—that was a kiss That stirred the nerves till they seemed like ruby wine aflame in my veins.

And he grew so tender and loving that It was as if an abyss Had swallowed us up in its mystic fold; The hazardous past was forgotten, faded away from the hallowed now, the present enough;

Oh, love's tremendous ecstasy! Life was veiled in a rosy mist of enchanted bliss.

Oh, glory of glories! The fairies had transported us to their love paradise center, uniting our souls with a kiss.

"Bachelor and maidens may kiss with the soul kiss with perfect propriety," La Viesta said. "It may be sent through hotel walls or transmitted from lover to lover under the eyes of parents."

REFUSES STARVING WIFE AND CHILDREN FIVE CENTS

On Knees Woman Beggars for Price of Loaf of Bread—Angry Mob Makes Rush.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—If Matthew Fortuall had not been arrested just when he was last night, he might have been beaten, and he certainly would have been lynched by a crowd of angry citizens who heard him refuse to give a nickel to his wife to buy a loaf of bread.

Hostilities were about to begin, when Policeman Groff of the Park and Lehigh avenues, station, arrived at Twelfth and York streets, where the pitiful scene was enacting.

Mrs. Fortuall, emaciated and ragged, was on her knees before her husband, and her four gaunt children were huddled around her.

"I don't ask you to come back, Matt," she was saying, "but for God's sake give us the price of a loaf of bread! Just a loaf of bread! We are starving. Can't you see for yourself we're starving?"

"No!" shouted Fortuall. "I won't give you nothing."

With an angry roar, the spectators who had gathered around made a rush for the man, and Policeman Groff made a rush for him, too. He beat back the others with his club, called a patrol wagon and took the whole family on a gallop to the station house.

Mrs. Fortuall said that her husband had abandoned her and the children a week ago, and that they had been wandering about the streets ever since without any shelter and with very little food.

Her husband declined to explain his conduct, and was held for a hearing this morning. There is no station at the Park and Lehigh avenues station, so Mrs. Fortuall and the children were taken to the house at Twentieth and Beaks streets.

GIRL IS PRAISED AFTER SHOOTING STEPFATHER

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Owen Sweeney walked into Magistrate Hughes' office confidently expecting to send his stepdaughter, Catherine Moran, to jail for shooting him. He walked out a sadly humiliated man, and the girl was released on nonpal bail for a further hearing next Saturday.

She is 19 years old and rather pretty, although the effects of hard work and illness are apparent in her face and figure. On July 3 she turned on her stepfather at their home, 283 Watkins street, and shot him three times. He had been in the Methodist Hospital until a few days ago.

"I did it," said the 19-year-old prisoner tearfully to the magistrate, "because I had to. For eight years I have been treated like a dog by my stepfather. He had to work early and late, and he took all the money I earned for drink."

"That I could have endured, but he reviled my poor dead mother and sister. He called me the filthiest names and beat me frequently. Once he tried to attack me. At last I couldn't stand it any more. I shot him."

Before he could reply Magistrate Hughes had to clear his throat a few times. Then he thumped his desk, and gave Sweeney a terrible scolding. He advised the girl to sue for a warrant for her stepfather's arrest immediately, and said that he would nothing further in the case until he had an opportunity of investigating her.

TO RENEW SMELLING SALT.

Smelling salts can be made to last years if fresh spirits are poured over balls of salts from time to time, so keep up the original strength of the ture. Many people use spirits of ammonia in this connection, but a still powerful specific may be found in the proportion of two parts of the mer to one of the latter, says Dr. Life. In procuring the ammonia, ever, care must be taken to avoid the aromatic spirits of ammonia in the water which it contains, prevent it from amalgamating with the oil.

The Affliction of a Flat Foot

Flat foot is a very common affliction. It is also one which is frequently overlooked by physicians. The sufferer complains of pain in the heel, the ankle, the inner base of the foot, great toes, the muscles of the calf, the knee or even the hip. These symptoms are attributed to rheumatism, and another flat-footed individual plods his weary way.

Increased deformity is added to what may have been merely a strain in the first place. A curable case has become well-nigh incurable. Any factor which tends to diminish the muscular power of the foot may cause flat foot. A great increase in the weight borne by the foot is a cause.

This increase in weight may be actual, such as occurs in people put on a great deal of fat, or it may be relative, such as occurs in a lean, jumpers especially. But by far the most common cause is a loosening of the foot, brought about by improper shoes.

For treatment of this condition mechanical support to the foot is practically all that is necessary. This mechanical support is afforded by means of the footplate made from highly tempered steel, molded upon a plaster cast of the foot.

The footplate should be worn as long as it is required, but not less. Additional wearing of the plate beyond the time necessary, as indicated by the symptoms, is simply an additional cause of harm. With the plate a shoe should be worn fitting the normal contour of the foot.

CITY COUNCIL GIVES ITS ENDORSEMENT TO CARNIVAL

Director-General Bernard Miller States
That a Quarter of a Million Visitors
Will Come to Oakland.

Councilman Burns said, that he thought the council ought to go further than a mere endorsement of the exposition, and he asked whether an appropriation of $489 could not be made as a contribution from the city. He called a contention to the fact that in the past appropriations had been made for the celebration of the centennial of the adoption of the fourth of July celebrations, and said that he believed the present proposition merited a similar action.

President Elliott said that this could not be done, as the city attorney had delivered an opinion that such appropriations were illegal.

COUNCIL ENDORSES.

The resolution follows:

Whereas, the exposition has been taken by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce in preparation for a festive and industrial display known as the Al-

Alameda County Exposition and Carnival, the purpose of which, is to encourage the development of the resources and promote the general interest of Alameda county, and

Whereas, an executive committee, the personnel of which guarantees representation of all the great activities of Alameda county, has outlined plans for the most extensive civic demonstration ever attempted in Northern California, the result of which must be of lasting benefit, and

Whereas, we believe Alameda county has the opportunity through the medium of the said exposition and carnival to exhibit its vast resources before a large number of visitors from all sections of the state, therefore be it

Resolved, that the city council of Oakland hereby pledge its support to the aforementioned executive committee in this important public work, and be it further

Resolved, that the clerk of this council be instructed to notify the director-general of the Alameda County Exposition and Carnival of our determination to co-operate.

so that it will be ready for use at as early a date as possible.

ANOTHER EXTRA.

"Authority was given the Board of Education to purchase clock systems for the Lafayette, Grant and Campbell schools. The prices quoted were supposed to be for clocks installed, but it developed that

These prices were for clocks delivered at Oakland. The cost of installing the same in the two buildings—of the city and Grant schools—will be approximately $125. This will have to be added to the prices heretofore quoted, making in all for the two buildings $1330.

$75 MORE FOR GRILLS.

"We found it necessary to change some column footings of the Lincoln school, necessitating the making of eight iron grills at $9.37 each. This increases the expenditure we would ask your approval.

DIRT $6.25 PER DAY.

"The Temescal school lot is being filled in with dirt furnished the Board of Education for the hauling, the dirt being loaded into wagons. Your committee en-

"Your committee has agreed with the Whitaker & Ray Co., subject to your approval, to install a blackboard in the Franklin school building at the rate of 23½ cents per square foot.

"Our committee advertised for and received bids for the painting of the Franklin school in accordance with the plans and specifications of Stone & Smith architects. Three bids were received for this work, one from J. C. Peterson for the sum of $866, one from P. N. Kuss for the sum of $845, and one from James Cahill & Co. for $3125. James Cahill & Co. being the lowest responsible bidder, the contract was awarded to said firm, subject to your approval, for the sum of $3125."

OAKLAND'S PROGRESS WAS MARKED LAST FISCAL YEAR

Annual Report of Building Operations Is Issued by Department of Public Works Containing Figures.

That the city of Oakland is progressing rapidly is borne out by the facts and figures which appear in the annual report of the department of public works, compiled by Secretary Fawcett, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907. It shows that the number of building permits issued were more than double those issued in the previous fiscal year. During the year 1905 to 1906, 1624 permits were issued for the erection of new buildings, totalling $3,834,287 in cost. The same year 1481 permits were issued for repairs and additions, totalling $1,412,406.95. The total value of the work represented by the building permits for 1905 to 1906, was $4,446,694.95. From 1904 to 1907, 3404 permits were issued for new buildings, representing a cost of $3,580,270.10. During the same time, 2089 permits were issued for repairs and additions, totalling $1,341,081.10. The grand total for the year

THE BRINK IS NEAR

Few Oakland People Know How Near It Is.

Every time you neglect backache. Allow the kidneys to become clogged. Fall to cure urinary disorders. You get nearer the brink of Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills will save you from danger. Ernest Mathauer, machinist in the Southern Pacific car shops, and living at 912 between M and N streets, Sacramento, Cal., says, "Before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills in 1901 an attack of pain in the sides and back had lasted for over six months. I could hardly stoop over or lift anything without suffering severe pains that would catch me suddenly in my back. A fellow workman who had used Doan's Kidney Pills induced me to try them, and I did so with such good results that I made a statement publicly recommending them. I am a firm admirer of Doan's Kidney Pills and recommend them every chance I get. I don't think there is any remedy their equal for kidney trouble and backache." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SPORTING TALES TOLD BY THE WAYSIDE No. 4. THE STORY OF THE BRIGHT YOUNG MAN AND HOW HE LOSES HIS BANK ROLL TO A HICK

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

Once upon a time there was a very young man, with pale blonde hair and eyes, who lived in a large city. This young man came from a well-to-do family, and he had been educated at one of the best schools in the country. He was a very bright young man, and he was very popular with the girls. He was also very fond of playing pool, and he was a very good player. He had a very large bank roll, and he was very generous with his money. He was a very kind and generous young man, and he was very popular with everyone. He was a very bright young man, and he was very popular with the girls. He was also very fond of playing pool, and he was a very good player. He had a very large bank roll, and he was very generous with his money. He was a very kind and generous young man, and he was very popular with everyone.

BILLY NOLAN IS CASSIUS OF MODERN MANAGERS Fight Promoters Do Not Like This Lean and Spare Man, but He Manages to Get Results and Money.

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

"Would he were fatter, but I fear him not; Yet if my name were liable to fear, I do not know the man I should avoid As soon as that spare Cassius. He reads much; He is a great observer, and he looks Quite through the deeds of men. He loves no plays, As thou dost, Antony; he hears no music. Soldiers he smiles at; and smiles in such a sort As fanned himself and scorned his spirit That could be moved to smile at any thing."

TURF Interesting Notes About Racing Matter By LEE DEMIER

Nothing in the way of features will enliven today's racing programs. Six clever fields will line up at the Meadows, however, and good sport will result. The main event, which is for sprinters, attracts a speedy field and the winner will have to step some.

GRAND JUROR GORDON IS EMBARRASSING PROSECUTION

GRAND JUROR J. E. GORDON, WHO IS BASE FOR CHARGE THAT GRAND JURY IS PLYING POLITICS.

Says He Was Asked to Take Nomination for Treasurer or Auditor--Willing to Be Public Administrator.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—The grand jury is beginning to play politics. Yesterday J. E. Gordon, of the firm of the Gordon Syrup and Pickle Company, who is chairman of the grand jury committee which has been investigating the work of the city treasurer, auditor and other municipal officers, announced that he had been approached by people who wanted to know if he would accept a nomination for city treasurer or city auditor if tendered to him.

Mr. Gordon flattered at this statement by stating that neither of these offices had any charm for him, but that he would be glad to have the nomination for public administrator. Yet he did not wish to even have this honor conferred upon him unless the nomination should come solicited.

Assistant District Attorney Heney was staggered beyond all bounds at the gossip which followed. While he did not deny that such propositions as tenders of nomination had been made to grand jurors, he insisted that the man who said the prosecution had made these offers was a liar.

The statement by Mr. Gordon is as follows:

"It is true that several persons have asked me in my willingness to accept nomination either of treasurer or auditor. These persons were acting in their individual capacity, and I do not know that they were representing any persons or powers interested in making up new political stations. They have been doing so, but I can't say that they were."

"I have told these persons that my business interests would not permit me to accept either the office of auditor or treasurer."

"There is only one office I would be willing to accept if the nomination was offered to me, and that would be the office of public administrator."

"I consider the office of public administrator has nothing to do with politics and I believe I could fulfill its duties without interfering with my business. Any other office I cannot consider now or at any other time. Years ago I refused the nomination for sheriff, and I since have had virtually nothing to do with active politics."

"I presume the talk about my accepting the nomination for either Auditor or Treasurer arose because of the fact that I am head of the grand jury committee that is investigating these and other municipal officers."

"The grand jurors themselves have recently asked me if I would accept either of these offices, but this talk has come purely in a spirit of jest."

"The grand jurors want to have nothing to do with politics, and the reason that they have begun to concern themselves over the approaching election has caused much indignation among them. There is absolutely nothing in these reports."

DOES NOT SEEK OFFICE.

"I am not seeking any office. I believe the time has come in San Francisco when the office is to seek men, and I would not even think of the responsibility of being Public Administrator unless the nomination came solicited."

"A good deal of the time after they finally secured a quorum for the work of discussing the gossip. The members were of various natures. There was, however, a general denial."

"It is to be noted, however, that in the statement made by Mr. Gordon does he specifically deny that persons in the prosecution did make the offers to him and he does not mention speaking of the ones who approached the subject to him, that he just know that they were representing any person or powers interested in making up new political stations. They have been doing so, but I

KOREA VILE, SAY JAPANESE

Poor Schools, Corrupt Courts, Bad Roads to be Bettered by Mikado.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The Far Eastern mails just arrived contain a pamphlet issued from the Japanese residency general of Korea, entitled "Administrative reform in Korea," assigned to vindicate the work of the Japanese in the hermit kingdom under the authority conferred by the Japanese-Korean agreement of 1904, whereby Japan was constituted adviser to Korea.

The document treats of the financial difficulties that confronted Marquis Ito at the outset, during the inadequacy of the Korean exchequer to bear the cost of reform. He succeeded in raising a loan from the Japanese industrial bank of 10,000,000 yen, guaranteed by the customs receipts bearing interest at 5 1/2 per cent and sold at 90 yen per 100 yen. The money realized was distributed in the re-construction of roads, in building waterworks, establishing an educational system, the creation of banks and erection of hospitals.

It is said the Korean roads were totally unfit for horse and carriage travel, so that it became necessary to appropriate 1,500,000 yen for four great roads to traverse the regions of best promise and connect the best harbors and railway centers.

SCHOOLS WERE POOR.

Prior to the residency there was in vogue a Confucian method, whereby a village domineer called about him the children of the neighborhood and taught them the rudiments of reading and writing. There were ten thousand of these schools and at Seoul an institute of higher education learning a primary school ordinance promulgated in 1905, was a dead letter, and the middle grade schools in Seoul, with the exception of one in foreign languages, existed in name only.

An entirely new system has been established, first importance being given to disseminating common education under Japanese instructors.

The existing hospitals, defective in management and limited in accommodations and equipment, have been consolidated into the "great Korean hospital." The police department, which had really been in triplets, has been unified.

COURT CORRUPT.

Of the remarkable attempt at perfection of the imperial court, the pamphlet, after painting a striking picture of the corruption and sloth that existed, describes the reform measures adopted, and says:

"In court circles there were, no doubt, some who at first felt alarm at this radical turn of affairs, but the sterling sincerity of the resident general's solicitude becoming gradually better known, the force of resentment has since slackened until no voice is now heard in active opposition."

"The way in which justice had been administered in Korea is too revolting to all sense of decency to be told in detail."

"The country has not yet attained that stage when the executive and judicial departments are important, so the system of justice is regarded as a thing to be farmed out; bribery is general; innocent people are convicted and their property confiscated, and the guilty are liberated. 'All this,' says the pamphlet, 'is being reformed by the Japanese.'"

In conclusion, the pamphlet says the Japanese have provided the Koreans with a code of laws regulating the development of native mines, provision for the protection of immigrants, and encouraging the development of productive industries.

YOUNG BRIDE IS INJURED IN EARLY MORNING COLLISION

Automobile Crashes Against Milk Wagon at Elmhurst, Hurling Anne Walker to the Ground.

In the cold dawn of the early morning shortly before the first rays of the sun shot up over the hills, the San Leandro road near Elmhurst was the scene of a wrecked automobile party in which pretty Mrs. Anne Walker, a bride of 32 and living at 418 Eighth street, was painfully injured in a collision with an incoming milk wagon.

A gay young party of motorists, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Walker and another couple, were driving speedily toward Oakland from an all-night ride to the towns along the southern part of the county. Tired, scarcely able to see, and thinking that they had the road to themselves, the party speeded on at a rate in excess of moderate automobilizing.

The young man driving the machine did not see any obstacles ahead in the road until his machine came to a sudden stop. The car maintained its balance, but the force of the collision with a milk wagon threw Mrs. Walker to the gravelled roadside. Notwithstanding the fright caused by the accident, and the scare given the remainder of the party, the men folks ran to the side of Mrs. Walker and found that no bones were broken and she was in no serious condition. The milkman, too, was thrown some distance, but he managed to hold his reins and prevent a runaway. His wagon was a wreck and the road was a puddle of milk and cream.

Aside from the cut and bruised right wrist and knee of Mrs. Walker, the autoists escaped without injury or damage. One of the forward guards of the machine was smashed, but the engine was intact. Mrs. Walker was placed in the tonneau of the car and a quick run was made to the Receiving Hospital, where, at 3:30 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Walker's bruises were dressed by Warden James M. Page.
